July 7, 2016 at 8 a.m. - July 8, 2016 at 5 p.m.
Symposium held at The Catholic University of America, Washington D.C.
Hosted by The National Catholic School of Social Service

Pope Francis has denounced domestic abuse and violence. Join leaders from across the nation to identify how the Church, through you, can respond in your community. Leaders who have a heart to walk with people touched by domestic abuse are invited to participate in this 2 day Symposium. Interactive presentations will address Catholic teachings, programs, and resources. Grounded in Catholic Social Teaching, participants will be able to champion a compassionate response to domestic abuse in their parishes, diocese/archdiocese, or agencies.

For more information contact your collaborative partner or Sharon A. O'Brien, Ph.D. Director of Catholics For Family Peace: obriensa@cua.edu or ncsss.cua.edu/centers/cyf/
CatholicsForFamilyPeace.cfm